NEW YORKER INDORSES GALLINGER SPEAKS "SEE AMERICA" PLAN

Offers Services.

Letters continue to pour in upon the First' circular letter, sent out to the newspapers and commercial bodies of the after Jacob II Gallinger of New Hamp-West not long since. Indorsements of shire, Rear-Admiral R. D. Evans and the plan, however, are not confined to others those who have been addressed, but many who have heard of the Commercial club's gigantic project are writing to show their approval thereof, and to lend their aid toward making the conference in January a tremendous success.

Letter From New York

One of these letters was received by the special committee on Friday morning the special committee on Friday morning from J. A. Heckman, a well-known business man of Brooklyn, N. Y. who has made a study of the question and presents a new phase of the European tourist travel—not only the amount of money expended for the pleasure of seeing Europe, but the amount which Americans annually expend in their purchases to bring home, which Mr. Heckman says amounts to $40,000,000 annually. The full text of his letter follows.

Here Is the Letter.

I have read the newspaper reports of the forts being made by your absorbation to energy tourist travel in the United States, of to decourage so for as possible the alcet universal manus to take vacation trusk Europe of the American people. I have wen this subject considerable thought and tention for the mast five years, and I want tention for the mast five years, and I want engaged in a splendid and profitable ork. Millions Spent Abroad.

In the year 12st about 12st on first-class parenigers binded from the stramships at New York. These, were practically all returning American tourists. From my own estimates and those of other well-informed persons it is concrally shown that the average per capital expense of these tourists in Europe is $1000 and you thus see that not far from $120,000,000 a animally spent abroad by American traviters.

A number of years ago the writer requested the accretary of the United States. Treasury to detail a rescial officer who should take special note of the value of merchantis-brought back by the returning travelers, and als report now on file in the Treasury depart-ment at Washington fixes the amount at $10, 100,000, so that the cost of the trip and the purchases of goods brings the amount up to $10,000,000.

Appreciates Action of Club.

I suppose you have gone all over this phase of the matter and do not require any further information, but I want to express my appreciation of your action and to say that if I can be of any service in the work, I will gladly help you.

Proves He's Not Krup.

WASHINGTON Not II.—The police authorities today took a man into custors on information from New York that he was John Krup, the escaping illegal voter. The man errested was released after satisfying the police that he was not Krup. He said his name was William Roderick and that he was a jockey on his way to Los Angeles.

"I am proud today to command one of the finest fleets in the world. This fleet of mine has about half the officers that it would need in war, but we are pretty well off for men, men from the Middle West, wherever that is. Now, go on building ships, he continued, turning toward Senator Gallinger, "and build them eighteen thousand tons. Fo not be extravagant, but give us the tools that we must have when the time comes. You press the button and we will try to do the rest." rest."
Senator Gailinger made an address in favor of the ship subsidy bill and the rehabilitation of the American merchant, marine. He said, in part:

Thinks Subsidy Would Pay.

"The Frye-Hanna bill provides for a subsidy of $5 per ton for vessels engaged in foreign frame for twelve months. In refurn these vessels may be taken for the defense of the United States. One of the big metropolitan dailles has recently said such a bill would but a tax burden of from $15.690,000 to $20,000,000 on the people Gentlemen, the tonnage dues and the carrying of the mails, these two items alone, would make the cost of this bill not in excess of $1,000,000 the first year.

It is possible that Belgian Socialists will cause trouble when it is proposed to transfer to Prince Albert the present annual grant of $40,000 paid to the Count of Flanders as heir-apparent. When the late Count proposed some time ago to renounce his succession in favor of Prince Albert, the Socialists who have always denounced the Count for accepting this grant, in view of the fact that he was normously rich annuanced their intention of opposing in the strongest manner possible the transfer of the grant.

Alleged Uttered Them.

Several forged checks, alleged to have been passed by Harry E. Coles, a well-known chimney sweep of Salt Lake, are now in the hands of the authorities, and a lively search is being made for him. Two of the checks were passed Thursday evening at L. Harr's saloon, 7 West Scoond South street, and in addition to being forged were indorsed by Coles upon the back in his own hand writing. In speaking of the matter Friday, a bartender at the saloon in question said:

"Coles has passed a large number of checks here and they have always been worth their face value heretofore, but the ones of Thursday night are rank forgeries. But for the fact that I had become acquainted with him I certainly would have been suspicious.

The checks referred to were for $6 and $1, respectively, and during the day a number of stallar ones have turned up at the local banks. Coles has not been seen since early Friday morning, when he called at the Constock saloon and asked for a blank check upon the Bank of the Republic.
